

NFLPA CAREER EXPERIENCE

ORGANIZATION & EXPERIENCE OVERVIEW

Are you considering a future in the financial industry or aiming to enhance your financial knowledge? Financial Finesse, the official Financial Wellness partner of the NFLPA, is dedicated to offering current and former NFL players invaluable guidance to help them achieve their financial objectives.

Opportunities within the NFL are abundant, but only those who are prepared can seize them. During this Career Experience, you will collaborate closely with our CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNERS™ to develop your personalized financial plan, gain insights into wealth-building strategies, and explore the possibility of a post-football career in the financial sector if that aligns with your aspirations.

JOB DESCRIPTION/RESPONSIBILITIES

Financial Finesse empowers individuals and families to enhance their financial well-being through online resources, group education, and personalized consultations. Our team of Financial Coaches, all bearing the CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ designation as a minimum requirement, develops and delivers our content and live engagements.

Throughout this experience, you will discover the keys to becoming a successful Financial Coach and how to pursue your own financial goals.

SCHEDULE OVERVIEW

Financial Coaches are available for financial guidance over the phone, through chat, and in group sessions on all weekdays, excluding weekends.

DESIRED SKILLS/QUALIFICATIONS

Financial Finesse seeks candidates with a passion for achieving financial freedom, both for themselves and others. You should have an interest in working with and motivating individuals from diverse backgrounds, from the 99% to the 1%, to help them take the necessary steps to enhance their financial well-being. Many of our Financial Coaches have also held roles as business owners, real estate investors, financial advisors, and attorneys. If you have specific career aspirations within the industry, we are here to support your goals.